On June 8, this Court signed an order continuing the status conference in this case from June 22 9, 2005 to June 30, 2005, at 2:00 p.m., and excluding time from the calculation under the 23 Speedy Trial Act for effective preparation of counsel and unusual case. 24 2. On June 29, 2005, due to the unavailability of the Court, this Court, on its own motion, 25 continued the status conference from June 30, 2005 to July 15, 2005. 26 3. Government counsel will be in South Carolina during the week of July 11, 2005, including 27 July 15, 2005. 28 4. The parties have been engaged in extensive discussions regarding a possible settlement, which involve a supervised release violation pending against the defendant in another Court.

1		Because of the complexity of the discussions, and the possibility that the parties will have reached a settlement by the next appearance, this Court finds that substitution of government
2		counsel for the next appearance is inadvisable.
4	5.	This Court finds that this case is unusual and complex because it involves a defendant who is
5		charged with sending child pornography to the federal prison from which he was released,
6		shortly after his release, and because the defendant is also facing a supervised release
7		violation in another Court.
8	6.	This Court finds that taking into account the exercise of due diligence, the defense requires
9		additional time to investigate the alleged supervised release violation and its relationship or
10		impact on the above-captioned case.
11	7.	For good cause shown, this Court therefore orders that the next appearance be scheduled for
12		July 28, 2005, at 2 p.m., and an exclusion of time between June 30, 2005 and July 28, 2005
13		from the calculation under the Speedy Trial Act, to allow the parties reasonable time, taking
14		into account the exercise of due diligence, to investigate and analyze the supervised release
15		violation in this unusual case; to accommodate the Court's unavailability; to permit
16		continuity of government counsel, and because the case is so unusual. 18 U.S.C. §
17		3161(h)(8)(A)&(B)(ii)&(B)(iv). This Courts finds that the ends of justice served by this
18		exclusion outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. See 18
19		U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A).
